

Victims of Human Trafficking Dispute

If you are a victim of human trafficking and wish to submit documentation to block or dispute information in your consumer report prepared by Blue Line Investigations, please contact us via mail or email or submit via our website.

When submitting such a request, you will need to submit:

Proof of identity such as:

- Driver's license
- Government identification
- Passport
- Utility bills

Victim determination documentation:

- A federal, state, tribal, or local governmental entity, government agency, or law enforcement entity; or
- A non-governmental entity or task force authorized by a governmental agency to make such a determination; or
- A self-attestation, signed by a representative from a governmental entity, court, an authorized non-governmental organization or human trafficking task force.

Identification of adverse information and contact information:

- Provide a statement identifying the specific items of adverse information that resulted from human trafficking.
- Indicate your preferred method of contact, either the mailing address or email address that Blue Line should use to communicate with you in writing about your request.
